

tiny-trainable-instruments docs

About

This document lists and explains all the available documentation for the Tiny Trainable Instruments project.

Contents

The files in this documentation are as follows:

Note: All Markdown files (.md extension) can be read as a rendered text, or you can examine its source code by clicking on the button “Raw” on the GitHub graphic user interface.

Navigation: * README.md: this file. * images/: contains the images used in this documentation.

Setup: * installation.md: how to install software prerequisites. * wiring.md: where to place circuit elements on the breadboard.

Reference: * instrument0.md, instrument1.md, instrument2.md: detailed information on each instrument and its capabilities. * contributing.md: how to contribute to this project. * making-of.md: additional information about the tools used to build this tutorial and project. * input-output.md: what information goes in and out of the instrument. * bill-of-materials.md: list of materials necessary to construct instruments. * tinytrainable.md: TODO * software.md: TODO